Tejon, Tunes & Tapas^{T3} and Films, Food and Fun^{F3} Call for Submissions and Application

The inaugural "T3" and "F3" at Nosh were created to bring local artists to downtown Colorado Springs to share their talent with our local community. Two separate competitions will be held in the fields of music and film and each competition will operate under two separate timelines. Please review the submission requirements and deadlines below:

A review panel will select who will perform in each competition and a performance schedule will be posted on the Nosh webpage (www.nosh121.com) and the Colorado Springs Independent ("Indy") webpage (www.csindy.com) within two weeks post submission deadlines. Competitors will also be notified by phone/email.

All materials submitted must be labeled with the band/film name, contact name, address, and phone number. No materials will be returned. SEVEN copies of your submission are required from each competitor. Any expenses incurred during the application process and performances are the competitors' sole responsibility. Only one entry per band/filmmaker is allowed. You will be notified by email or phone if you were selected to compete for the cash prizes.
